Vol. 5 Issue 1

Published Ten Times A Year

September 2007

President's Message

First off, I would like to welcome everyone back! I hope that everyone had a fun, relaxing and enjoyable summer. As always, the summer flew by very quick! I hope that everyone has some of that summer energy left to use toward a new League year. I have been very impressed and inspired by the enthusiastic work of our new committee chairman. They have been hard at work this summer laying out the groundwork for this years upcoming events.

The Junior League of Youngstown's Provisional class mural, "Here in Youngstown" was unveiled this past July, in the Bliss Hall gallery on the Youngstown State University campus during the Summer Festival of the Arts. This was a great collaborative effort with the Junior League of Youngstown, Bob Barko, 24 area high school students, local business and organizational sponsors. If you have not seen this amazing piece of artwork, Bob Barko has plans to display this mural at the Canfield Fair and the Octoberfest in Boardman Park this coming October.

The Sustainer's Garden Party was held at the home of Phyllis Ricchutti and was very well attended. I would like to thank Phyllis for planning a beautiful event. The new Provisionals had a chance to meet some of our Sustainers. I am very excited because some of these Sustainers have volunteered to be mentors for our new Provisionals.

This fall, Passport to Prizes raffle books will be the start of the first fundraiser of the League year. The Passport committee has been working very hard on this years campaign which will get underway at the September General membership meeting. Members started selling their passports at the beginning of September when they were delivered to their houses. The committee solicited ten fabulous prize packages that should make these booklets a quick sell. The books are $10.00 each. We need every members support of this fundraiser that will guarantee the Junior League's tradition of making a powerful statement in our community.

September is the start of a new project for the upcoming League year. The Junior League of Youngstown has partnered with the Neil Kennedy Recovery Clinic on the Women to Women House. Our members will have the opportunity to make their marks on these women who need our help by offering them one hour of mentoring programs. The various programs that will be discussed in this months Briefly.

I am very excited to be working with a talented and amazing group of women! The Junior League has so much to offer, not only to the community but also to women in the League. I challenge each and everyone of you to take advantage of these opportunities that are offered by the League. Just remember, what you put into the League is what you get out of it!

Fondly,
Lynee Aiad-Toss

SUSTAINER GARDEN PARTY IS A SUMMER ‘SUCCESS STORY’!!

Phyllis Ricchiuti graciously opened her home, once again, to host the Sustainers’ Garden Party on Thursday evening, August 30th. This season, the JLY set a precedent: that of inviting the new Provisional Class members to the event! The Provisionals were able to meet the Sustainers and learn of how League functioned some years in the past. This afforded an opportunity for Provisionals and Sustainers alike, to put names to faces and have some personal interaction within the two distinct levels of membership.

Sustainer Representative, Suzyn Schwebel Epstein, welcomed everyone and introduced the present Provisional members. She invited Sustainers to consider becoming Mentors to not only Provisionals, but Active members as well. Suzyn then introduced President Lynee Aiad-Toss, President-elect, Elizabeth (“Liz”) Nohra and Provisional Chair, Amy Banks to the members. President Lynee Aiad-Toss informed those in attendance about the League’s vision and plans for the new season.

From our President’s report, there promises to be much activity within the Community and the League. Currently, the League is focused on Community projects such as women who are being treated for substance abuse at the Neil Kennedy Recovery Clinic. The JLY mural, last year’s Provisional Project, is being publicly displayed within the Mahoning Valley and serves as a good “marketing tool”.

Sustainer Representative Suzyn Schwebel Epstein then asked Annette Camacci to speak about the Sustainers’ Breast Cancer Survivors’ Tea, Renee Battafarano, who is hosting the Mother-Daughter Brunch in November, Joyce Mistovich, and Ingrid Lundquist who addressed Angel Ball, which will be held in December 2007.

All members at the party were reminded of the importance of contributions to the Sustainers’ Special Committee: the Endowment Fund, and its purpose. Sustainer Suzyn Schwebel Epstein wanted to remind Sustainers that they are needed to provide desserts at the General membership meeting. Contact Suzyn 330.759.7948 or the League office if you can bring a dessert.

The food and camaraderie that night was a sight to behold and the evening was ‘savored’ by all! Keep reading the Briefly Speaking for more Sustainer “news” in the months ahead!!

STREETSCAPE – May 2007

JLY Mural of Youngstown Update

What started as a vision from the provisional class of 2006/2007 evolved into a vision for the whole Junior League of Youngstown. The unveiling of the “Past, Present and Future of Youngstown” took place at the Youngstown State University’s Arts Festival, Saturday, July 7, 2007 @ noon. Channel 21 was there to cover the unveiling and interviewed Lynee Aiad-Toss, myself as well as the master mind behind the mural, Bob Barko, Jr. The Junior League of Youngstown has granted Bob Barko, Jr. custody of the mural meaning he will house the mural as well as handle scheduling for the mural to be shown at various events. Bob has graciously agreed to promote The Junior League of Youngstown along with his business, Steel Town Studios at these events. This is another way The Junior League of Youngstown is reminding the valley of what we stand for that is reflected in our mission, volunteerism, children, and education.

Pink Ribbon Tea

Plans are well under way for the 13th Annual PINK RIBBON TEA, which will take place at the Holiday Inn Metroplex on Monday October 1st. Our speaker this year is Christine Clifford Beckwith. Christine is the President of The Cancer Club®, an organization that specializes in marketing humorous and helpful products internationally to help people with cancer. She is the author of four best selling books. After being diagnosed with breast cancer in 1994, Christine recognized that laughter provided a necessary release from the tension and even promoted recovery. So she decided to do something about it!

If you haven't donated to "Sponsor a Survivor" to attend, it's not too late. You can complete this donation form and mail it along with your check to the League office by September 10th.

The Chinese Auction and Goodie Bag have become a very important part of the Tea. Our guests seem to really enjoy taking a chance on the beautiful gifts at the auction table and look forward to what might be in the goodie bag this year. On that note, if you would like to donate a basket or item for the Chinese Auction it would be greatly appreciated. Also, if you have a company that would like to donate 300 pieces of a give-away item (i.e. pens, chip clips, samples), we would be happy to add them to the bags. Please contact Susan Berny, Annette Camacci, or Anna Marie Newman if you are interested.

Since this is a Junior League event, it is very important that we honor Junior League members who are breast cancer survivors. If you are a survivor or if your mother, sister, family member or friend is a survivor, please call Barb in the League office for an invitation. We would love to have you join us in this celebration of life.

There's still time...

Apple Streusel Pizza

Pie dough (enough for 2 pie crusts)
7 good-size MacIntosh (or other tart) apples, peeled and sliced into 1/4-inch thick slices
1/2 cup sugar
1 teaspoon cinnamon

1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
Streusel Topping:
1/2 cup sugar
3/4 cup flour
1/2 cup butter or margarine

Fit pie dough into 12 or 14-inch pizza pie pan, turning up edge and fluting to make a rim. Place apples on dough, slightly overlapping in circles, moving from rim to center. Combine 1/2 cup sugar and spices and sprinkle over apples. For topping, mix 1/2 cup sugar and flour. Cut in butter until coarse mixture forms. Sprinkle over apples. Bake, uncovered, at 450 degrees for 20 to 25 minutes, until crust is golden brown and apples are tender. Cut into "pizza slices" to serve.

Yields 8 servings.
