The Junior League of Youngstown helps stock Reward Store for Harding Elementary School

Youngstown, October 8, 2009 – The Junior League of Youngstown will be supplying Harding Elementary School in Youngstown with items for their school store. Students at Harding Elementary will be able to purchase the items at the store with points awarded for good behavior in school. The program was started by Nancy Williamson. Members of the Junior League of Youngstown will be supplying crayons, small tablets, fancy erasers, stickers, colored pencils, hair barrettes, fancy rulers, pencil sharpeners, folders, coloring books and bangle bracelets among other items to stock the store.

The Junior League of Youngstown stocking of the store will coincide with the regular Tuesday, October 13, 2009 General Membership meeting which will be held at Harding Elementary School at 7 pm. The speakers at the meeting include Nancy Williamson, the teacher at Harding Elementary who started the school reward store and Diane Guarnieri, Harding Elementary Principal.

About the Junior League of Youngstown

The Junior League of Youngstown is an organization of women committed to promoting voluntarism, developing the potential of women, and improving communities through the effective action and leadership of trained volunteers.
